Roads go ever ever on,
Over rock and under tree,
By caves where never sun has shone,
By streams that never find the sea;
Over snow by Winter sown,
And through the merry flowers of June,
Over grass and over stone,
And under mountains in the moon.

Roads go ever ever on
Under cloud and under star,
Yet feet that wondering have gone
Turn at last to home afar,
Eyes that fire and sword have seen
And horror in the halls of stone
Look at last on meadows green
And trees and hills they long have known.

DEDICATION

The class of 1982 dedicates this yearbook to our class advisor, Mrs. Reynolds, without whose support and constant intervention this graduating class would not be possible. Mrs. Reynolds is a member of the Math Department of B.H.S., and her math classes have often been found lending a hand with various class projects. We wish her luck with her growing family, and we are sorry that, due to unavoidable circumstances, we were unable to obtain a picture of her for our yearbook; however, even without a picture, we will never forget Mrs. Reynolds' help. We give her our heartfelt thanks and sincere best wishes for the future.

The yearbook staff would like to extend this dedication to Mr. McCauley; advisor for the yearbook, head of the English Department at B.H.S., and a very patient person. Thank you for not firing us for missing our deadlines, and thank you for calling Burlington Studios until we got all our pictures. Good luck next year.

DON'T LOOK BACK

Don't look back
over your shoulder,
or you'll be caught;
our time is over.

We've had our chance
to grow in safety,
but what's home to us
won't be for long.

The world is waiting,
full of people,
full of pain, ideas, and life.

We feel pushed,
and cling together,
dragging our feet to slow us down.

But as we join as friends,
when before we looked away
to our safe, familiar groups,
We find we form a class,
we share a common bond,
and we realize that each of us
is scared of moving on.

There's courage in that fear,
and the knowledge
that it's shared;

We think we just might make it after all,

Because "if they can move ahead,
and they're as scared as I am,
maybe life isn't all that bad."

We begin to think,
in fact,
it could be fun.

IN MEMORY

When Miss O'Sullivan, a venerable member of the Bedford High School language department, died last year, many people mourned her passing. Many of her Spanish students remember her as a warm, smiling person who never had a harsh word to say. Her fellow teachers, too, felt a great loss. She had been a good friend. Somehow the language department seems empty without her. The preacher at her funeral regarded her as one of the best church members and certainly the most generous. He also stated that even though Miss O'Sullivan had died, all that she believed in and worked for lived on, right next to our happy memories of her.

THE BARRETTS OF WIMPOLE STREET

In December, 1981, the BHS Drama Club presented The Barretts of Wimpole Street. Rosanne McHugh, in her first starring role, played Elizabeth Barrett. The part of her father was played by senior Adam Sutton, who played Jesus in the Drama Club's 1981 production of Godspell. The part of Robert Browning, Elizabeth's fiance, was played by John Orlando. This role was quite a change from his role in last year's production of The Wizard of Oz; he played the cowardly lion. The play was directed by Mr. Vincent Parella, a member of the English faculty here at BHS. The members of the year-book staff wish the Drama Club the best of luck in years to come.

Above: An enthusiastic crowd awaits the start of the program. Above right: Last-minute apprehension. Below right: The chorus performs Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

On December 23, 1981, the Bedford High School Music Department performed a portion of their annual Christmas concert for the students. The choir performed "Jazz Gloria," a selection they had been featured doing on Channel 4's Eyewitness News. The girl's ensembles performed "Sing Alleluia," the Madrigals performed "'Tis the Time of Yuletide Glee," and the Double Sextette performed "The Twelve Days After Christmas." The combined groups performed "The Many Moods of Christmas" and, according to tradition, the "Hallelujah Chorus." All selections except those by the Madrigals and Double Sextette alone were accompanied by the Bedford High School orchestra. The others were accompanied by the keyboard talents of Andrea Lund (Madrigals) and Barbara Walline (Double Sextette).

HOMECOMING 1981

The brisk autumn breeze broke the tension of the crowd as the royal red limousine rounded the Bedford High School track. The five charming Homecoming Queen finalists waited breathlessly for their names to be called, just moments after the royal ride. "First runner up — Kathy Gural!" boomed the announcer. Kathy, escorted by her father, received a kiss from the senior class president, John Zolnay, and from her father as she was given a flower. Again the air was electric with tension. A new hush passed over the crowd. "And the new Homecoming Queen is Kathryn Whitney!" The crowd cheered wildly as the blushing new queen walked slowly forward to her coronation. (Above, left to right: Kathy Gural, Shelly Nassr, Kathryn Whitney, Kelli Whitley, and Mary Kay Weiler.)

Forever!//Amy — I'll bet Massachusetts is positively sick of Bedford by now! — D.B./Carolyn — You cannot Joe Verb (unless, of course, you use verb rather than a Joe Verb, because it is a Joe noun.) — D.B.//Diana — That's JOE CONFUSION! — “Joe Friend” of Danny's//To W.H. — Fam Camp will never be the same. To D.D. — Moosehead; I don't like you, leave me alone. W.H. Eliot Rd; Wattoo — AC D.D. — What's up? To D.D., W.H. — L.G. will never be the same without us. Love ya both H.F. To C.F., D.B., D.D., D.R. — Remember the library//Amy — Pseudo sister-in-law???!!! — D.B.//Hey pseudo-sis! Does that make Donald my little half-pseudo-brother-in-law-in-law???//Amy — you're asking me?! What about my half-uncle? — D.B.//I don't know. What about him? — A.T.//This is fun; but silly.//Why do earthlings continually repeat the obvious?//Amy — Filthy little habit of theirs, isn't it? — Veet Voojagig//Amy — Maybe when they close their mouths, their brains begin to work.//Not Steve's! — Anonymous//Lanie & Rosie — Here's to all the movies, blitz parties, chocolate chip cookies and bottles of Tab we've been through. Thanx for everything. Love ya! S.D.M. Carolyn — Just because you're a girl and a Protestant doesn't mean you can't come ----really!///Rainbows and pots of gold are for little green men with shileleighs, but Graduation is for Seniors. Good luck to the Class of '82 — it's been fun. — D.B. //ME** You're Killin' Me!** E block get Psyched much, great class much fun joking with ya Mattie and Tad; ST**B and F blocks much fun Paul Law was a blast (Shneer! again) B-1-1 published and MC on Dr. D; DH late bus doesn't come on Fridays and “short” chat; mystery girls Time and EM & JP pictures; TS and EL Photo class was great although you incurred Mr. P's wrath. Great lunch discussions, although the table was almost always full. HDK and I are great friends. PW.

BEDFORD COLLECTION

Roads go ever ever on,

Over rock and under tree,

By caves where never sun has shone,

By streams that never find the sea;

Over snow by Winter sown,

And through the merry flowers of June,

Over grass and over stone,

And under mountains in the moon.

Roads go ever ever on

Under cloud and under star,

Yet feet that wondering have gone

Turn at last to home afar,

Eyes that fire and sword have seen

And horror in the halls of stone

Look at last on meadows green

And trees and hills they long have known.

J.R.R. TOLKIEN
